SWEPT BY BLIZZARD

New York City Under a Deep Mantle of Snow.

TRAFFIC GREATLY IMPEDED

Storm Coming Suddenly Upon Heels of Warm Wave Caught the Unemployed and Poorer People Unprepared—Much Suffering Resulting.

New York, Jan. 25—The snowstorm which swept over the city late Thursday developed into a blizzard during the night. Friday the city streets were piled deep in places with drifts and street car traffic and the movement of ferryboats and other craft was badly hampered. The steam roads were also seriously delayed. This forenoon there is more than nine inches of snow and there appeared to be no immediate prospect of a cessation.

Caught Them Unprepared.

Coming suddenly upon the heels of a long period of warm weather, the storm caught the unemployed, the homeless and the poorer people of the East Side totally unprepared. Many who had in the warmer weather found shelter in wagon sheds for the night were driven out and there was a rush of the homeless to the city lodging houses and charitable institutions.

For the first time this winter the city lodging house was overcrowded and the covered pier of the charities department at the foot of East Twenty-Sixth street, was turned into an emergency lodging house. Many applications for shelter were received at the various police stations.

Her Feet Frozen.

While the storm was at its worst, Mrs. Clara Vorveck was found wandering in the streets in Brooklyn clad only in her night clothing. Her feet were frozen when the police found her.

The work of removing the snow was begun early and many hundreds of men who were in sad need of employment were given work clearing the thoroughfares

The body of a man about whom nothing is known except that his name was James Smith, was found under a stoop in East Twenty-third street. He had crept under the stoop to seek protection from the storm and had frozen to death.

Traffic conditions improved very slowly if at all in the city and its suburbs during the forenoon.

In Brooklyn transportation lines were almost at a standstill.

The long cut on the Brighton Beach line, extending the whole length of Prospect park, was completely filled with snow and no trains were running. Traffic also was suspended on the Culver line and the West End line to Coney Island, and the surface cars to that district were moving only about half headway. The Thirty-ninth street ferry line made no attempt to operate. A forty-minute blockade on Brooklyn bridge added to the discomfort and delay.

Electric Trains Stopped.

On the Long Island railroad it was found impossible to run any electric trains on the line from Brooklyn to Jamaica.

Marine observers report the storm to be particularly severe off the coast.

Boston, Jan. 24.—Southeastern New England Friday experienced a northeastern snowstorm which began Thursday night. The wind blew thirty to sixty miles an hour. The storm delayed railroad and street car traffic.

Theatrical Report Denied.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 25.—Gaston Newfirth, manager of the Lyric theater, denies positively that a deal has been closed by Jake Wells whereby he is to take over the house on Feb. 1. Mr. Newfirth said that the report that this deal has been made is absolutely incorrect and as negotiations are pending for the transfer of the place. Manager J. Tannenbaum, of the Wells circuit, who is interested with Mr. Wells, confirms the denial.

WANTS PROFESSORS KILLED.

Startling Statements Made by Prof. Muensterberg of Harvard.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—In an address to the German society of Chicago, in Fullerton hall Thursday night, Professor Hugo Muensterberg, of Harvard university, declared that American universities would be better off if two-thirds of the professors were killed. He said:

"There seems to be something weak and molly-coddle about our whole academic system. In our highest institutions of learning we find, with a few notable exceptions, only second-class men. And we may be sure second-class schoolmasters never will build up a first-class scholarship.

"An increase in the salaries of the assistant professors and instructors in our colleges and universities by a few hundred dollars a year will never accomplish anything. What is needed is great premiums at the top.

"One of the greatest evils from which our American universities suffer is too great an abundance of men. As soon as an institution gets some money the first thought is to add more men to the faculty, to out-do some neighbor institution. Every one of our American universities would be nearer to the ideal if it would kill two-thirds of its instructors and professors."

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

In Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, snow has reached a depth of six inches. The storm is worst in New Jersey, where the railroad traffic is badly crippled.

Presidents of state universities of the United States closed their convention in Chicago Thursday night after adopting a resolution petitioning congress for the creation of a national university at Washington, D. C., for the schooling of post graduates.

A Japanese has been discovered on the island making sketches of Honolulu, Pearl harbor and the coast line from the heights behind the city of Honolulu, Hawaii.

Suit has been filed in the circuit court at Lexington, Ky., by Benjamin M. Lanning, of this city, and others, against the Standard Trust company, of Birmingham, Ala., asking that a receiver be appointed for the company.

The supreme court of the United States has denied the petition for an appeal in the Chicago street railway reorganization case.

HEIRS OF GEO. WASHINGTON.

They Are Soon To Receive Part of an Estate Valued at $1,000,000.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Weatherford, Tex., says:

The Brazletop family of this city, heirs of George Washington, first president of the United States, will soon receive part of an estate of 40,000 acres vauled at $1,000,000 in the Clermont district, Ohio.

According to a message received on Thursday from Washington, D. C., J. W. Brazelton, a banker; B. F. Brazelton, a physician, and R. L. Brazelton, a farmer, and Georgia relatives, will also receive a share in the estate.

Washington having no children, left the Ohio estate to his nephews, General Nathaniel Green, and his niece, Hannah Green. Jacob Brazelton, grandfather of the Texas heirs, married Hannah Green.

Town is Taken By Revolutionists.

Port-Au-Prince, Hayti, Jan. 25.—The revolutionists have taken possession of the town of Port de Paix, 35 miles west of Cape Haytien. An English and a French cruiser are expected on the coast shortly. They will give protection to British and French interests. Charles Miot, the American consular agent at St. March has been removed from office by the American legation because of his complicity with the rebels. Miot is a Haytien.

Will Act as Escort.

Montevedeo, Jan. 25.—Five Argentine warships passed here Friday on their way to receive the American torpedo boat flotilla on the high seas off Montevedeo. They will escort the visiting vessels to Buenos Ayres.

Friday's Fire Alarms.

An alarm of fire was turned in at 3:10 a. m. Friday, which summoned the department with its usual promptness to a house occupied by colored people on West Main street N. It was fortunate that the department responded promptly, as the wind was high, and a fire under the circumstances might have wrought considerable damage. However, the flames, which originated from a defective chimney, were soon subdued.

An alarm was turned in from Box 23 at 5:55 Friday evening, but, as usual from this box, proved to be a false alarm. Certain parties have been summoned to turn in false alarms from this box, and as they are suspected, there may be more trouble some day, as the penalty for turning in false alarms is very

STRICTLY CASH BASIS SOON.

New York Banks Rapidly Retiring the Clearing House Certificates.

New York, Jan. 25—When business closed Thursday, all but $11,200,000 of the $97,000,000 in clearing house certificates issued by the Clearing House association during the recent financial flurry, had been retired

Since Monday $7,800,000 of the clearing house certificates have been taken up, nearly $2,000,000 a day.

It is believed that practically the whole of the amount outstanding will be wiped out by the end of the week and that early next week the clearing house will again be on a strictly cash basis. The fact that the money is now flowing into the banks in large quantities is emphasized by the fact that the retirement of the certificates was simultaneous with the return of $10,000,000 of the emergency deposit made by the government during the height of the flurry. The highest rate for call money Thursday was 2½ per cent, most of the loans being made at 2 per cent and some at 2½ per cent.

WAYLAID BY WHITECAPS.

Veterinary Surgeon Strung Up by His Thumbs and Thrashed.

Brookfield, Mo., Jan. 25—Information was received here Thursday that Dr. W. E. Carter, a veterinary surgeon of Nashville, was waylaid by whitecaps, strung up by the thumbs and thrashed on the bare back until he was exhausted in an effort to wring from him a confession to charge of wife beating and petty theft.

He was called eleven miles into the country, ostensibly to treat a sick animal, and was waylaid on the trip. After the punishment the masked assailants commanded him to leave the country within thirty days.

Dr. Carter has been confined to his bed because of his injuries and has endeavored to keep the matter secret. He denies the charges emphatically and expresses a determination not to leave.

Fell Between Moving Cars.

Columbus, Ga., Jan. 25.—F. A. Hindsman, yardmaster of the Southern railway in Columbus met a terrible death Thursday night, falling between two moving freight cars and being crushed. One or two cars passed over him, almost severing the body. It is believed that in walking from one car to another he made a misstep and fell. He was about thirty years of age, and married, and was a very popular secret order man. He was merly a resident of Newnan, Ga.

PLOT AGAINST KING

Attempt Was Made to Overthrow Monarchy of Portugal.

WAS NIPPED IN THE BUD

Plan, It is Stated, Was to Assassinate Premier France and Then Depend for Success on Street Uprisings—Ringleader Captured.

Lisbon, Jan. 25.—An abortive attempt to overthrow the monarchy and proclaim Portugal a republic was nipped in the bud Wednesday night by the prompt action of the government. The plot was organized by a small group of advanced republicans. As near as can be ascertained, the plan was to assassinate Premier Franco and then depend for success upon street risings, supported by secret republican and labor organizations armed with bombs and revolvers.

The police discovered what was in the wind early in the evening and surrounded and raided a house where the ringleaders in the plot were conferring. When they broke in the doors, the lights were extinguished and in the confusion which followed most of the conspirators managed to make their escape. Several of them, however, were captured, including the leader, Joan Chagros, a republican journalist, who was president in the republican revolt in 1891; Franca Berger, editor of Omundo, and a merchant by the name of Grendella.

A case of revolvers and bombs was found in the cellar. A general alarm was immediately sent out, and while the prisoners were being taken to jail troops began to appear from all directions. A squadron of cavalry was placed around Premier Franco's house, and the night passed without further incident.

TRIED TO LYNCH ENGINEER.

He Opened Throttle, Dashed Through Crowd, Killing Six Men.

Baku, Trans-Caucasia, Jan. 25—In consequence of the accidental killing of some laborers by a locomotive at a suburban station of the railroad here Friday a mob of comrades of the victims surrounded the engine and attempted to lynch the engineer.

To escape the fury of the excited workmen, the engineer opened the throttle of the locomotive and dashed through the crowd, killing six men and wounding many others.

Shriners Lose Their Baggage.

Waco, Tex., Jan. 25.—A party of one hundred Shriners from St. Louis, Chicago and Kansas City, returning from the City of Mexico, where they had been to institute a new organization, had their baggage car containing the entire baggage of the party and all curios gathered in Mexico burned seven miles south of here on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad on Thursday. A gasoline can exploded causing the blaze. The party lost all their effects.

Orders Investigation.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 25.—The Missouri board of railroad and warehouse commissioners have ordered an investigation of alleged ownership by the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad company of the Kansas City, Clinton and Springfield Railway company, in violation of the law prohibiting the consolidation of parallel and competing lines.

Killed While Resisting Arrest.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 25.—Near Hickman, Ky., Thursday afternoon, Frank Conley, charged with bootlegging, and known as an all-round bad man, was shot and killed by Jack A. Rogers, an officer, while resisting arrest. It is said that Conley came from a well-to-do family in Nebraska.

FEDERATION LABOR STILL IN SESSION

Thursday Was a Busy Day With Federation Representatives.

HON. ION L. FARRIS WAS PRESENT

Candidate for Congress Was Made Honorary Member of the Convention, and Delivered a Fine Talk—Palatka the Place of Next Meeting.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

The meeting of the Florida State Federation of Labor was called to order at 9 o'clock a. m. Thursday morning by President Moritz, and a roll-call showed the majority of delegates present.

The Hon. I. L. Farris of Jacksonville was present, and by a unanimous vote of the convention he was elected an honorary member of the body. Mr. Farris addressed the convention, expressing his greatest appreciation for the honor.

The report of the committee which recommended that the State be divided into six districts, and that one member from each district be elected on the executive board, with two members at large, was received and concurred in.

By motion, minutes of previous meetings were read and approved.

Resolutions Nos. 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and 22, were received and referred to the committee on resolutions.

Resolutions Nos. 2, 14, 6, 5, 9 and 10 were reported favorably upon except No. 6, denouncing the prohibition movement. This resolution was turned back without action, as the convention did not think it advisable to place themselves on record as a body on this question, which was a matter of personal privilege which might be exerted at the proper time and place.

The committee on officers reported favorably on all officers' annual reports, and the committee received a rising vote of thanks for the valuable services rendered.

The special committee on securing a complimentary performance by the Jeavons Dramatic Company for the benefit of the State Federation of Labor, reported the same had been satisfactorily arranged, and members of the convention were requested to meet at the Brown House at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, for the purpose of attending this performance in a body, after the second act a token of appreciation to be presented Miss Jeavons for the consideration given the convention by putting on this special play, "The Working Girl's Wrongs."

The resolution recommending the division of the State into six districts was again brought up and discussed at some length, but was not changed.

The committee appointed to confer with the Farmers' Union asking that union to affiliate with the State Federation of Labor, made its report, after which an adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Afternoon Session.

The meeting in the afternoon was called to order promptly.

The committee on laws reported on the following numbered resolutions, which were referred to them for action. Nos. 15, 20, 5. Nos. 15 and 5 were reported favorably, but an adverse report was made on No. 20, which resolutions will be furnished the public as soon as same can be gotten in proper order.

A committee was appointed to take up the matter of affiliation with the Farmers' Union as follows: J. A. Roberts, chairman; W. F. Edgerton, J. C. Gilbert, R. L. Harper, W. B. Wilcox.

A number of resolutions were reported upon and discussed at some length.

In complying with a call by Governor Broward, inviting organized labor to be represented at a convention to be held in the city of Tampa during the coming State Fair to discuss the question of immigration, the following were elected to represent the Federation at said convention: J. J. Romera and G. B. Groves of Tampa, John Pomar of St. Augustine.

Palatka Next Year.

The question of the next meeting place of the convention for 1903 was taken up, and Sanford and Palatka were presented. By unanimous consent Sanford was withdrawn, and Palatka was selected as the meeting place.

Judge Farris, by request of the convention, addressed the meeting on the general questions of the day, after which the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock Friday morning.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

After a most interesting and beneficial session of the Florida State Federation of Labor, which has been in convention in this city since Tuesday, the meeting has adjourned, all business of the Federation having come to a close at noon Friday.

This proved one of the most successful State conventions the Federation has ever held, and, notwithstanding that the attendance was not as large as had been anticipated, the delegates got down to work, and accomplished a great deal. There were more than fifty present, but this number should have been exceeded. Among those here, however, were the leading advocates and supporters of organized labor of Florida, representing every branch of that profession which keeps the world and the government on its feet, so to speak.

The meeting was called to order Friday morning at 9 o'clock by President Max P. Moritz, which was followed by the roll-call.

After a few reports by special and standing committees, the election of officers for the ensuing year was held, which resulted as follows:

Max P. Moritz of Tampa was unanimously re-elected; James E. Goddard of Tampa, first vice-president; George Ross of Jacksonville, second vice-president; W. C. Cooper of Jacksonville, third vice-president; Mrs. Jennie Williams of Palatka, fourth vice-president; W. M. Boynton of Tampa, fifth vice-president; C. R. Pettis of Tampa, sixth vice-president; R. L. Harper of Jacksonville and C. P. Bradford of Tampa, vice-presidents at large; J. A. Roberts, who has served the State Federation so faithfully for the past several years, was unanimously re-elected as secretary-treasurer; delegate to A. F. of L. convention to be held in Denver, Colorado, J. F. Bartlum of Tampa; delegates to immigration convention to meet in Tampa during the State Fair, John H. Pomar of St. Augustine, J. J. Romero and Geo. B. Groves of Tampa.

These officers were duly installed by Organizer S. J. Triplett.

A resolution was presented and passed authorizing the executive board to form a stock company to acquire possession of The Central Union Times and conduct the same as the official organ of the labor organizations of the State.

A resolution of thanks was presented and unanimously passed to Dr. T. F. Thomas for the use of tables during the convention. Resolutions of thanks were also passed to Dr. Thomas P. Hay, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and Attorney E. C. Baxter for the prayer and address of welcome, respectively, at the opening of the convention.

President Moritz, in his usual clever and impressive manner, presented to Secretary-Treasurer J. A. Roberts in behalf of the delegates, a handsome fountain pen, which was given as a token of appreciation for his faithful and efficient services in office, after which the convention adjourned to meet in Palatka in January, 1903.

The delegates left for their respective homes in the afternoon, well pleased with the State convention of 1902, and the welcome accorded them by the citizens of Gainesville.

R. R. COMMISSION MET R. R. OFFICIALS

Commission Behind Railroads on Account of Poor Depots Here.

RAILROADS TELL POOR TALE

Seaboard Can Do Nothing Account Being in Hands of Receiver, While Atlantic Coast Line Puts Up Poor Mouth.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

In compliance with the order, a meeting of the Florida Railroad Commission, representatives of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line railroads, and the citizens, was held at the court house Wednesday morning.

This meeting was the outcome of a petition of the citizens of Gainesville, through the Gainesville Board of Trade, directed to the Railroad Commission, and asking that a union station be provided by the railroads entering Gainesville for the benefit and convenience of the traveling public.

The meeting was well attended. There were present the full Railroad Commission, Messrs. R. Hudson Burr, J. L. Morgan and N. A Blitch, Superintendent M. Riddle of the Atlantic Coast Line, Superintendent W. J. Jinks of the Seaboard Air Line, representatives of the Gainesville Board of Trade, and many citizens.

After Commissioner Burr, who called the meeting to order, stated the object of the same, Superintendent Jinks was asked to speak in behalf of his road—the Seaboard. Mr. Jinks stated that his line is now in the hands of a receiver, and as the policy of the receivers in matters of this kind had not been announced, he was unable to speak with authority, or bind his road in any way.

Mr. Riddle, speaking in behalf of the Atlantic Coast Line, referred to the deplorable financial condition at this time, and asked for further delay.

Remarks were made by W. B. Taylor, B. F. Hampton, J. D. Stringfellow, J. O. Andrews and T. W. Shands, in behalf of the citizens.

After a most interesting meeting, the commission adjourned to make an inspection of the Seaboard Air Line depot in company with Superintendent Jinks and a number of citizens, and later an inspection was made of the Atlantic Coast Line depot.

It is quite probable that the Seaboard Air Line will be ordered to erect a new station, and the Atlantic Coast Line will be directed to repair and enlarge the depot, and the railroads will no doubt acquiesce.

The railroad officials left on the 11:20 a. m. train for High Springs.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Florida Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Florida readers.

A. Oerting, seaman, of 419 L. street, Pensacola, Fla., tells how to do it. He says: "From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I can strongly recommend them to anyone in need of a good medicine for the kidneys. Kidney complaint and backache caused me suffering at intervals for years. The first or second attack I did not mind, but as time went by they grew worse and at times laid me up. I could hardly walk and it was a difficult matter to straighten up after stooping, while the kidney secretions were irregular and unnatural. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. From personal experience I know that this remedy can be depended upon to fulfill the representations made for it."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Clyatt People Feel the Loss of Recently Deceased Citizen.

In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate, Mr. F. H. Clyatt, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those whom were nearest and dearest to him; Therefore be it

Resolved, That it is only a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best and chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That the heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be extended to the family of our departed friend in their hour of great bereavement. He was a devoted husband and father, a kind and obliging neighbor, always kind and sympathetic, ever ready to extend the hand of charity to those in need. His place is vacant in our midst which can never be filled.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the wife and family of our friend and to The Gainesville Sun for publication.

DIRECT UPON STOMACH.

Possibility of Administering Local Treatment to That Organ.

After a series of experiments covering a period of many years, a well-known specialist in stomach disorders discovered that to administer local treatment to the stomach was a possibility.

As a result of his study of the diseases of digestion and nutrition, he prepared a prescription called Mi-o-na stomach tablets that act directly upon the stomach and bowels, increasing their strength and power to digest whatever food is eaten.

Headaches, giddiness, palpitations, heartburn, sleeplessness, flatulence, bad taste in the mouth, irritability, drowsiness, coated tongue and full feeling after eating are results of indigestion and cured by Mi-o-na.

J. W. McCollum & Co. give a guarantee with every 50-cent box to refund the money if the remedy does not do all that is claimed for it.

Judge Gary Re-Elected.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 24—The general assembly has elected Robert Aldrich, of Barnwell, judge of the second judicial circuit to fill the unexpired term of James Aldrich, resigned. Eugene B. Gary was re-elected associate justice of the supreme court without opposition.

FORECLOSURE SALE.

W. R. Thomas Live Stock Company To Have Big Sale February 3.

As will be seen by announcement elsewhere in this issue, The W. R. Thomas Live Stock Company proposes to have an auction, or foreclosure sale, of horses and mules of the T. R. Pickett Lumber Company, on Monday, February 3.

The T. R. Pickett Company, who have been doing business in Suwannee county, failed recently, and the stock, comprising from 50 to 60 head of fine mules and horses, was reverted to The W. R. Thomas Company by process of foreclosure. There is in the lot some fine animals, devoted to all purposes, and those in need of a good horse or a good mule will do well to attend this sale, as stock will be sold at auction regardless of cost—the stock has got to move.

Another interesting feature of this sale, which will be held at the stables of The W. R. Thomas Live Stock Company, beginning at 10 o'clock Monday, February 3, will be the manner in which the stock will be sold. Any reliable party, who can furnish good security, will be permitted to take the stock on twelve months' time, with eight per cent interest.

Farmers and others desiring a good, useful animal, will find no better opportunity than this.

COUNTY JUDGE'S COURT.

J. F. Ward Arrested and Placed in Jail on a Serious Charge.

From Saturday's Daily Sun:

There was an interesting session of Judge Mason's court Wednesday afternoon, when J. F. Ward and Mary Jane Moore, both of Willeford, were arraigned upon a charge of living in adultery.

The case was called and part of the evidence submitted, when further hearing was postponed on account of the absence of other witnesses which it was deemed important to have.

Ward was placed in jail, pending bond, while the woman was released upon her own recognizance to appear at the proper time.

It is said that Ward has a legal wife in the West End, but that he left her and took up his residence with Mrs. Moore.

Why

Should your baby suffer? When he is fretful and restless, don't experiment on him and use any old thing your neighbor recommends. Buy a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, greatest known worm medicine and cure for children's diseases. It is mild in its action, builds up the system, makes thin, puny babies fat. Mrs. J. C. Smith, Tampa, Fla., writes: "My baby was thin and sickly, could not retain its food and cried all night. I used one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and in a few days baby was laughing, happy and well." Sold by W. W. Johnson.

An Exciting Runaway.

An exciting runaway occurred on East Union street Friday, when a horse attached to one of the delivery wagons of the Gainesville Bottling Works became frightened at a passing locomotive and made a bold dash.

The animal was stopped within a block, but not until considerable damage had been done to the vehicle. There was no damage to the driver, however.

Simple Remedy for La Grippe.

La grippe coughs are dangerous as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Census of School Children.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 24—By direction of a law approved August 14, 1907, every county, city and separate school district in the state must take a census of the children of school age in July of this year and every even year thereafter. The county boards are required to make provision for paying for the enumeration.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

You can avoid pneumonia and other serious results from a cold by taking Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough and expels the cold from the system as it is solidly knotted. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. J. W. McCollum & Co.

CATARRH A SERIOUS

FAR-REACHING BLOOD DISORDER

Even in its early stages Catarrh is almost intolerable, caused by the stuffy feeling in the nose, the buzzing noises in the ears, the continual "hawking and spitting" difficult breathing, etc. But when the blood becomes thoroughly polluted from the catarrhal matter, the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness, and often an aggravating cough; the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite and strength, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased and the system upset and deranged. Frequently the kidneys and bladder are attacked, and the constant passage of impure blood through the lungs, diseases these important members, and Catarrh terminates in Consumption. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease, and must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all the impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, in the circulation, and removes every trace of the impurity that is causing the trouble. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes commence to heal, the mucous discharges grow less and finally cease, and all the disagreeable and disgusting symptoms of Catarrh disappear. S. S. S. has no equal as a cure for this disease. It refines and purifies the entire circulation and repairs the damage done by Catarrh. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

IMPORTANT TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Owing to a new rule of the Postmaster-General publishers of newspapers are not permitted to extend credit to subscribers for more than one year for weeklies or three months for dailies. It therefore behooves subscribers to settle their back dues at once, as we must revise our list and eliminate the names of all subscribers who are in arrears further than the new law permits. We have now no choice in this matter, but are compelled to comply with the new rule in order to send The Sun through the mails at pound rates.

The new ruling of the Postoffice Department is made to rid the mails of publications issued principally for advertising purposes, and while in some instances it will work a hardship upon legitimate publishers, the order will in the long run prove of benefit to them by eliminating from the mails unfair competitors who have abused the pound rate privileges.

Postmaster Lynch of the Gainesville office is disposed to be as lenient as possible with the publisher, but our list must be revised at once, and unless you settle your subscription account it will be our unpleasant duty to strike your name from our mail list.

Remit by postoffice order, check or registered letter, and DO IT NOW.

A big lemon crop is promised by Southern California growers. This announcement has no reference to the Taft boom.

Cortelyou, if reports are true, looks "like father did when he rode the goat," or the goat rode him—rather dilapidated, but still in the ring.

Even the boll weevils down in Texas may be expected to take a new interest in their work when they learn that Daniel J. Sully is again at the head of the "bull" hosts.

R. W. Irvine of Lake City, candidate for railroad commissioner, has promulgated the best platform of any of the candidates so far announced for that position. It will be a "vote-getter" in all sections.

Notwithstanding that leaders of the Republican State organization declare the Florida delegation will be solid for Taft, there seems to be a lack of oil in some of the machinery. Forraker seems to hold a good hand in some of the counties.

The Tampa Tribune voices the sentiment of the general public in the following comment on the Thaw case: "We are all satisfied, brethren of the New York bar: Thaw was born crazy, was raised crazy, was crazy when he married Evelyn, was crazy when he killed White, is crazy now, will remain crazy the rest of his life and will die crazy. So do hurry up, cut it out, send him to a lunatic asylum and stop feeding the hungry cravings of mental dyspeptics with all this indigestible and nauseating tommy rot."

GREAT PROGRESS.

Progress is always in the comparative degree. Fifty years ago the world was exulting over achievements remarkable past belief to them, and we, looking back, smile at the pygmy work then accomplished and remember what wonders the magician's wand has produced in our own day. It is but a few decades between the handful of ships available during the Civil War and proud fleet that recently sailed out of Hampton Roads on its 13,772-mile peace cruise into the Pacific—spectacular, powerful, awe-inspiring, even to the greatest among the nations. Then, too, the West was remote, indeed, from the East, for the wonderful railway systems which link the Atlantic and Pacific shores by a few days' luxurious journey were yet unconceived. Now railroad engineering knows no obstacles. Once, thought hardly dared travel from Florida's mainland out along the treacherous coral reefs breathing miasma and fever, overgrown with tropical vegetation, infested with hideous reptiles and within reach of no pure fresh water supply. How long could a laborers' camp last there? But these same reefs are now the foundation of a new railway linking the mainland with Key West and bringing Cuba 100 miles nearer the United States. It is but a few years since any old hull that could keep afloat was a valued member of its navy; but recently the whole world watched with breathless interest while England took the "Hero," one of her older war vessels, and sacrificed it as a target for her modern battleships. Life-size photographs that require an entire room with a lens in one wall as a camera is the startling advance in this line. What a contrast to the little highly-prized daguerreotypes the Boys in Blue were sending home only forty-five years ago! For ages upon ages the North sea has been eating away the cliffs on the Holderness coast of Yorkshire, England, at a rate of 1,904,194 tons a year; now a system of reinforced concrete defenses has checked effectually the sea's ravages. These are but a few of the important innovations described in The February Popular Mechanics, which contains in all 172 articles and 160 illustrations, every one of absorbing interest, and written without dry technicalities, and so anyone can understand it. The Shop Notes department, compiled from the practical experience of men of every craft, is up to its usual standard, while the main features of the Amateur Mechanics' department are an automobile built by two boys from material on hand and various mechanical tricks.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—Congress is still killing time, until some of the committees are ready to report appropriation bills. The House being occupied with a rambling debate on State rights; the negro as jurors; the use of the United States army at the polls; bribery of United States officials and Congressmen; the punishment of lobbyists, and all the crimes specified in the new codification of the penal laws of the United States, the debate took on a partisan tinge, as might be expected in view of the approach of a national election, and when divisions were called for in nearly every case the vote followed party lines. There is one redeeming feature about the debate—it is not tied down by any ironclad rule of the committee on rules, and it is only limited by the regular rules, instead of the usual arbitrary enforcement of a special rule, which cuts off nearly all debate when partisan measures are pending.

In the Senate there is nothing doing beyond the introduction of bills, and running debate on resolutions during the "morning hour." But the Senate, unlike the House, does not attempt to make a show of business, but adjourns daily at an early hour. An important matter is, however, impending on the action of the Secretary of the Treasury in awarding the bids for the late issue of bonds and certificates, and also as to the deposits in the national banks, the securities accepted, and the name of the banks and the amount each one has on deposit. This information was asked for by a resolution proposed by Senator Culberson, the Democratic leader, and adopted before the holidays, but was not furnished by the Treasury Department until the 15th. There is not much doubt that it will be difficult for those Senators who usually defend the actions of the administration to explain why the Wall Street banks, and the country banks affiliated with them, were favored by large deposits, and banks in the South and West did not receive their fair proportion. It will be equally difficult to defend the details of the bond issue.

Some weeks ago in this correspondence it was stated that resignations from the cabinet were impending, but political exigencies have so far prevented such from occurring. Similar reports of impending cabinet changes are now current, and it is openly stated that both Secretaries Cortelyou and Bonaparte will resign. The factional fight between the Roosevelt-Taft faction and Knox-Hughes combine is becoming so intense that President Roosevelt is averse to any change in the cabinet at this time that would complicate the election of delegates to the Republican National Convention favorable to Mr. Taft.

From a high Republican authority I learn that Senator Knox will be the man upon whom all the anti-Roosevelt interests will eventually combine, and that, when the ultimate showdown in the convention comes Knox and Taft will be the leading candidates. It is probable that the race will be a close one between them on the final ballot, and it is possible that if some other candidate like Fairbanks, or LaFollette, stick to the last that there will be a deadlock. The control of the National committee by the anti-Roosevelt faction, with its power to decide which of the contesting delegates shall be placed upon the roll of delegates, may turn the scale against Mr. Roosevelt and his candidate. All the power and money of the corporations and the tariff-protected interests will be used to prevent President Roosevelt from rounding up the Southern delegates into the Taft corral, and the opportunity for corruption will not be wanting where one side is ready to buy and the other side to sell. Such is the present condition in the Republican camp, but with "practical" politicians involved with both factions there may be lightning changes in the program when found necessary to achieve their ends.

An exchange says a farmer gave his daughter a pair of chickens, and promised her if she would attend to them carefully, he would feed the increase for four years, and they should all be hers to do with as she pleased. The girl took her father's advice, and the results have been astonishing. He says she has $64 in the bank, and has 200 chickens that he has to feed, and according to his calculation she will "own the farm at the end of the four years and be charging him rent for living on it." She has not only developed a splendid business that is enabling her to make money, but she is teaching her sisters some good lessons in economy.

Hon. Park M. Trammell of Lakeland, who a short time ago withdrew from the race for United States Senator, has again decided he wants an office, and last week he announced that he was a candidate for the office of Attorney-General of the State against Hon. W. H. Ellis. He is an able lawyer, and will undoubtedly make a good run, and if elected would fill the office with credit. However, he is up against a hard proposition in his effort to win out over Col. Ellis, the present incumbent—almost as tough a proposition as he was against in the Senatorial race.—Fort Pierce News.

The State Federation Convention has come and gone, and the old familiar noise of the saw and the hammer is again heard in this section—but with less regularity than before the convention assembled. However, this is no reflection on the organized labor of this city—the delegates have gone—and taken their grips with them.

While we of Florida, like a child fed on good things and who enjoys the luxuries of life, are complaining about this "outrageous weather," we should pause long enough to remember that, while we are basking in a delightful sun-bath with the temperature lingering 20 degrees above zero, our unfortunate friends in the North dare not put their heads out without heavy furs, without the probability of a frost-bitten foot or nose. Florida is the grandest State in the Union—and we might add the grandest spot in the world. Some of us are lacking in gratitude.

SOME SEWER JOBS BEING CONDEMNED

Many Expensive Connections Being Turned Down by Inspector.

INSPECTOR MILLER IS ACTIVE

He Regrets Very Much the Necessity of Being Compelled to Put Owners to Extra Expense, But Will Not Permit Inferior Work to Remain.

During the past few days Plumbing Inspector Miller has been playing havoc with some of the "jobs" of plumbing which have been installed in this system throughout the city, finding it necessary to condemn the work in the residences of our most prominent citizens, on account of the unsanitary conditions. This condemnation has caused the necessity of having all the plumbing torn out and properly reinstalled.

Inspector Miller, in speaking of the matter, stated that this was an unfortunate condition of affairs, and very unfortunate on the part of those who were victims of improperly installed jobs. He could not help that, however, notwithstanding the fact that these citizens had given their work to apparently irresponsible plumbers, from whom they could recover no damage, and against whom they had no redress.

"Few people seem to realize the danger attendant upon cheap and unsanitary plumbing, and I regret to see such work installed. Speaking from an entirely impartial standpoint, I consider that I am doing the people a favor when I assure them that it is cheaper in the end to employ nothing but the best material and the most skillful labor."

While Inspector Miller regrets very much the necessity of his action, he states that he is appointed to do his duty in the matter of inspection of sewerage, and feels that, when a connection is condemned, he is really doing the party who owns the connection a favor, as some of the sewers would have produced constant sickness by reason of sewer gas.

Demand Active for Extra Fine Grades of Fleecy Staple.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 25.—There was an active demand for extra fine, one buyer taking all of that grade that was offered at 16c. Fancy was quiet but firm, and all other grades were dull and easy. Sales showed an increase, and were well in excess of receipts.

The ginners' report on Thursday showed a total of 80,187 bales ginned to January 16, which was 6,559 bales addition since January 1. This has resulted in raising the crop estimate to 85,000 bales, or possibly a thousand or two more. After the corresponding time last year only about 2,000 bales more were ginned.

ARCHER NOTES.

Archer, Jan. 25.—Dr. Waddell, who has filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church so acceptably for four years, has been compelled, on account of throat trouble, to ask the Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation between himself and the Bethlehem church, and all are filled with sadness and disappointment and assure the Doctor of an open door and a welcome, should he, in the Providence of God, be able to come to this field again.

Mr. Venable has a young lady visitor that his daughters are glad to have as a sister.

Mr. Linas has a son two weeks old.

Mr. Harper has moved into the L. G. Bauknight home that was recently purchased by W. L. Jackson.

The gunboat Vixen, which has been undergoing a thorough repair at the Pensacola navy yards, was launched Thursday. It is estimated that within about four months the boat will be ready to have its guns mounted.

FEDERAL COURT WILL BE ESTABLISHED HERE

Alachua to be Transferred to Northern District of Florida.

IT MEANS A BIG THING TO CITY

Will Add a Great Deal to the Importance and Dignity of the City—Clever Work of Congressman Clark. Judge Syd L. Carter Writes Senators.

The news of the passage by the Lower House of Congress of a bill transferring Alachua county from the Southern District to the Northern District of Florida, and providing for the holding of terms of the United States circuit and district courts at Gainesville, which information was received through The Associated Press Saturday, has been received here with a great deal of enthusiasm by our people, especially members of the local bar.

The telegram announced that this bill passed the House on Friday. The bill was introduced by Hon. Frank Clark, Congressman from the Second District, who has championed its cause throughout with the same great success which characterizes the majority of his efforts.

Judge Syd L. Carter, president of the Alachua County Bar Association, has written congratulations to Congressman Clark, expressing the gratification of the Bar Association on the passage of the measure. Judge Carter has also written to Senator J. P. Taliaferro and Senator W. J. Bryan, asking their good offices in pushing the measure in its present form through the Senate. It is understood that Senator Taliaferro has already promised his support, and no doubt our new Senator will lend his aid.

Thus Gainesville continues on her march of progress.

It is reported that Senator James P. Taliaferro will ask for an investigation into the question of the appointment of Wm. H. Northup to be postmaster of Pensacola. It seems that the late Senator Mallory asked the Senate not to confirm the appointment.

IMPORTANT TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Owing to a new rule of the Postmaster-General publishers of newspapers are not permitted to extend credit to subscribers for more than one year for weeklies or three months for dailies. It therefore behooves subscribers to settle their back dues at once, as we must revise our list and eliminate the names of all subscribers who are in arrears further than the new law permits. We have now no choice in this matter, but are compelled to comply with the new rule in order to send The Sun through the mails at pound rates.

The new rule of the Postoffice Department is made to rid the mails of publications issued principally for advertising purposes, and while in some instances it will work a hardship upon legitimate publishers, the order will in the long run prove of benefit to them by eliminating from the mails unfair competitors who have abused the pound rate privileges.

Postmaster Lynch of the Gainesville office is disposed to be as lenient as possible with the publisher, but our list must be revised at once, and unless you settle your subscription account it will be our unpleasant duty to strike your name from our mail list.

Remit by postoffice order, check or registered letter, and DO IT NOW.

A big lemon crop is promised by Southern California growers. This announcement has no reference to the Taft boom.

Cortelyou, if reports are true, looks "like father did when he rode the goat," or the goat rode him—rather dilapidated, but still in the ring.

Even the boll weevils down in Texas may be expected to take a new interest in their work when they learn that Daniel J. Sully is again at the head of the "bull" hosts.

R. W. Irvine of Lake City, candidate for railroad commissioner, has promulgated the best platform of any of the candidates so far announced for that position. It will be a "vote-getter" in all sections.

Notwithstanding that leaders of the Republican State organization declare the Florida delegation will be solid for Taft, there seems to be a lack of oil in some of the machinery. Foraker seems to hold a good hand in some of the counties.

The Tampa Tribune voices the sentiment of the general public in the following comment on the Thaw case: "We are all satisfied, brethren of the New York bar: Thaw was born crazy, was raised crazy, was crazy when he married Evelyn, was crazy when he killed White, is crazy now, will remain crazy the rest of his life and will die crazy. So do hurry up, cut it out, send him to a lunatic asylum and stop feeding the hungry cravings of mental dyspeptics with all this indigestible and nauseating tommy rot."

GREAT PROGRESS.

Progress is always in the comparative degree. Fifty years ago the world was exulting over achievements remarkable past belief to them, and we, looking back, smile at the pygmy work then accomplished and remember what wonders the magician's wand has produced in our own day. It is but a few decades between the handful of ships available during the Civil War and proud fleet that recently sailed out of Hampton Roads on its 13,772-mile peace cruise into the Pacific—spectacular, powerful, awe-inspiring, even to the greatest among the nations. Then, too, the West was remote, indeed, from the East, for the wonderful railway systems which link the Atlantic and Pacific shores by a few days' luxurious journey were yet unconceived. Now railroad engineering knows no obstacles. Once, thought hardly dared travel from Florida's mainland out along the treacherous coral reefs breathing miasma and fever, overgrown with tropical vegetation, infested with hideous reptiles and within reach of no pure fresh water supply. How long could a laborers' camp last there? But these same reefs are now the foundation of a new railway linking the mainland with Key West and bringing Cuba 100 miles nearer the United States. It is but a few years since any old hull that could keep afloat was a valued member of its navy; but recently the whole world watched with breathless interest while England took the "Hero," one of her older war vessels, and sacrificed it as a target for her modern battleships. Life-size photographs that require an entire room with a lens in one wall as a camera is the startling advance in this line. What a contrast to the little highly-prized daguerreotypes the Boys in Blue were sending home only forty-five years ago! For ages upon ages the North sea has been eating away the cliffs on the Holderness coast of Yorkshire, England, at a rate of 1,904,194 tons a year; now a system of reinforced concrete defenses has checked effectually the sea's ravages. These are but a few of the important innovations described in The February Popular Mechanics, which contains in all 172 articles and 160 illustrations, every one of absorbing interest, and written without dry technicalities, and so anyone can understand it. The Shop Notes department, compiled from the practical experience of men of every craft, is up to its usual standard, while the main features of the Amateur Mechanics' department are an automobile built by two boys from material on hand and various mechanical tricks.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 23.—Congress is still killing time, until some of the committees are ready to report appropriation bills. The House being occupied with a rambling debate on State rights; the negro as jurors; the use of the United States army at the polls; bribery of United States officials and Congressmen; the punishment of lobbyists, and all the crimes specified in the new codification of the penal laws of the United States, the debate took on a partisan tinge, as might be expected in view of the approach of a national election, and when divisions were called for in nearly every case the vote followed party lines. There is one redeeming feature about the debate—it is not tied down by any ironclad rule of the committee on rules, and it is only limited by the regular rules, instead of the usual arbitrary enforcement of a special rule, which cuts off nearly all debate when partisan measures are pending.

In the Senate there is nothing doing beyond the introduction of bills, and running debate on resolutions during the "morning hour." But the Senate, unlike the House, does not attempt to make a show of business, but adjourns daily at an early hour. An important matter is, however, impending on the action of the Secretary of the Treasury in awarding the bids for the late issue of bonds and certificates, and also as to the deposits in the national banks, the securities accepted, and the name of the banks and the amount each one has on deposit. This information was asked for by a resolution proposed by Senator Culberson, the Democratic leader, and adopted before the holidays, but was not furnished by the Treasury Department until the 15th. There is not much doubt that it will be difficult for those Senators who usually defend the actions of the administration to explain why the Wall Street banks, and the country banks affiliated with them, were favored by large deposits, and banks in the South and West did not receive their fair proportion. It will be equally difficult to defend the details of the bond issue.

Some weeks ago in this correspondence it was stated that resignations from the cabinet were impending, but political exigencies have so far prevented such from occurring. Similar reports of impending cabinet changes are now current, and it is openly stated that both Secretaries Cortelyou and Bonaparte will resign. The factional fight between the Roosevelt-Taft faction and Knox-Hughes combine is becoming so intense that President Roosevelt is averse to any change in the cabinet at this time that would complicate the election of delegates to the Republican National Convention favorable to Mr. Taft.

From a high Republican authority I learn that Senator Knox will be the man upon whom all the anti-Roosevelt interests will eventually combine, and that, when the ultimate showdown in the convention comes Knox and Taft will be the leading candidates. It is probable that the race will be a close one between them on the final ballot, and it is possible that if some other candidate like Fairbanks, or LaFollette, stick to the last that there will be a deadlock. The control of the National committee by the anti-Roosevelt faction, with its power to decide which of the contesting delegates shall be placed upon the roll of delegates, may turn the scale against Mr. Roosevelt and his candidate. All the power and money of the corporations and the tariff-protected interests will be used to prevent President Roosevelt from rounding up the Southern delegates into the Taft corral, and the opportunity for corruption will not be wanting where one side is ready to buy and the other side to sell. Such is the present condition in the Republican camp, but with "practical" politicians involved with both factions there may be lightning changes in the program when found necessary to achieve their ends.

An exchange says a farmer gave his daughter a pair of chickens, and promised her if she would attend to them carefully, he would feed the increase for four years, and they should all be hers to do with as she pleased. The girl took her father's advice, and the results have been astonishing. He says she has $64 in the bank, and has 200 chickens that he has to feed, and according to his calculation she will "own the farm at the end of the four years and be charging him rent for living on it." She has not only developed a splendid business that is enabling her to make money, but she is teaching her sisters some good lessons in economy.

Hon. Park M. Trammell of Lakeland, who a short time ago withdrew from the race for United States Senator, has again decided he wants an office, and last week he announced that he was a candidate for the office of Attorney-General of the State against Hon. W. H. Ellis. He is an able lawyer, and will undoubtedly make a good run, and if elected would fill the office with credit. However, he is up against a hard proposition in his effort to win out over Col. Ellis, the present incumbent—almost as tough a proposition as he was against in the Senatorial race.—Fort Pierce News.

The State Federation Convention has come and gone, and the old familiar noise of the saw and the hammer is again heard in this section—but with less regularity than before the convention assembled. However, this is no reflection on the organized labor of this city—the delegates have gone—and taken their grips with them.

While we of Florida, like a child fed on good things and who enjoys the luxuries of life, are complaining about this "outrageous weather," we should pause long enough to remember that, while we are basking in a delightful sun-bath with the temperature lingering 30 degrees above zero, our unfortunate friends in the North dare not put their heads out without heavy furs, without the probability of a frost-bitten foot or nose. Florida is the grandest State in the Union—and we might add the grandest spot in the world. Some of us are lacking in gratitude.

SOME SEWER JOBS BEING CONDEMNED

Many Expensive Connections Being Turned Down by Inspector.

INSPECTOR MILLER IS ACTIVE

He Regrets Very Much the Necessity of Being Compelled to Put Owners to Extra Expense, But Will Not Permit Inferior Work to Remain.

During the past few days Plumbing Inspector Miller has been playing havoc with some of the "jobs" of plumbing which have been installed in this system throughout the city, finding it necessary to condemn the work in the residences of our most prominent citizens, on account of the unsanitary conditions. This condemnation has caused the necessity of having all the plumbing torn out and properly reinstalled.

Inspector Miller, in speaking of the matter, stated that this was an unfortunate condition of affairs, and very unfortunate on the part of those who were victims of improperly installed jobs. He could not help that, however, notwithstanding the fact that these citizens had given their work to apparently irresponsible plumbers, from whom they could recover no damage, and against whom they had no redress.

"Few people seem to realize the danger attendant upon cheap and unsanitary plumbing, and I regret to see such work installed. Speaking from an entirely impartial standpoint, I consider that I am doing the people a favor when I assure them that it is cheaper in the end to employ nothing but the best material and the most skillful labor."

While Inspector Miller regrets very much the necessity of his action, he states that he is appointed to do his duty in the matter of inspection of sewerage, and feels that, when a connection is condemned, he is really doing the party who owns the connection a favor, as some of the sewers would have produced constant sickness by reason of sewer gas.

Demand Active for Extra Fine Grades of Fleecy Staple.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 25.—There was an active demand for extra fine, one buyer taking all of that grade that was offered at 16c. Fancy was quiet but firm, and all other grades were dull and easy. Sales showed an increase, and were well in excess of receipts.

The ginners' report on Thursday showed a total of 80,187 bales ginned to January 16, which was 6,559 bales addition since January 1. This has resulted in raising the crop estimate to 85,000 bales, or possibly a thousand or two more. After the corresponding time last year only about 2,000 bales more were ginned.

ARCHER NOTES.

Archer, Jan. 25.—Dr. Waddell, who has filled the pulpit of the Presbyterian church so acceptably for four years, has been compelled, on account of throat trouble, to ask the Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relation between himself and the Bethlehem church, and all are filled with sadness and disappointment and assure the Doctor of an open door and a welcome, should he, in the Providence of God, be able to come to this field again.

Mr. Venable has a young lady visitor that his daughters are glad to have as a sister.

Mr. Linas has a son two weeks old.

Mr. Harper has moved into the L. G. Bauknight home that was recently purchased by W. L. Jackson.

The gunboat Vixen, which has been undergoing a thorough repair at the Pensacola navy yards, was launched Thursday. It is estimated that within about four months the boat will be ready to have its guns mounted.

FEDERAL COURT WILL BE ESTABLISHED HERE

Alachua to be Transferred to Northern District of Florida.

IT MEANS A BIG THING TO CITY

The news of the passage by the Lower House of Congress of a bill transferring Alachua county from the Southern District to the Northern District of Florida, and providing for the holding of terms of the United States circuit and district courts at Gainesville, which information was received through The Associated Press Saturday, has been received here with a great deal of enthusiasm by our people, especially members of the local bar.

The telegram announced that this bill passed the House on Friday. The bill was introduced by Hon. Frank Clark, Congressman from the Second District, who has championed its cause throughout with the same great success which characterizes the majority of his efforts.

Judge Syd L. Carter, president of the Alachua County Bar Association, has written congratulations to Congressman Clark, expressing the gratification of the Bar Association on the passage of the measure. Judge Carter has also written to Senator J. P. Taliaferro and Senator W. J. Bryan, asking their good offices in pushing the measure in its present form through the Senate. It is understood that Senator Taliaferro has already promised his support, and no doubt our new Senator will lead his aid.

Thus Gainesville continues on her march of progress.

It is reported that Senator James P. Taliaferro will ask for an investigation into the question of the appointment of Wm. H. Northup to be postmaster of Pensacola. It seems that the late Senator Mallory asked the Senate not to confirm the appointment.

Materials for Correcting Soil Acidity

By A. W. BLAIR—Fla. Ag. Exp. Sta.

It is becoming more evident every day that some material will have to be used extensively to correct "sourness," or acidity, in Florida soils. Just what this material should be is not entirely clear in mind of many who are concerned. Quicklime, hydrated lime, air-slacked lime, and wood ashes, have all been used, and have proved effective; though they are not equally effective, pound for pound. Finely ground limestone, marl, and basic slag— sometimes called Thomas slag, or slag phosphate—have also been used to a limited extent.

Lime.

The different forms of lime have long been employed as correctives of "sour" soils. They are, however, unpleasant to handle, and they may, under some circumstances, cause injury to the soil or to the crop.

Caustic lime, or quick lime, especially, may cause an undue liberation of plant food, and a too rapid burning out of the humus. If applied near the time when the seed is sown, or after the plants are up, there is also a possibility that injury may be done to these. If this form of lime is used, it should be thoroughly worked into the soil some weeks, or even months, before the crop is planted.

Hydrated or water-slacked lime is not so likely to cause injury as quicklime, and if the proper amount of water has been added, it is not so unpleasant to handle. Seventy-four pounds of this would be equivalent to fifty-six pounds of quicklime.

Air-slacked lime is less caustic than either of the other two forms, and on this account would be safer to use. It is formed by leaving quicklime exposed to the air, and is a mixture of calcium hydrate (hydrated lime) and calcium carbonate. When quicklime is exposed to the air for a long time, so that it becomes thoroughly air-slacked, it attains the same composition as limestone; in which 100 pounds would be equivalent to 100 pounds of ground limestone, or to 56 pounds of quicklime.

Limestone and Marl.

Finely ground limestone is a more desirable material for correcting soil acidity than any of the forms of lime mentioned above. It is effective, and does not have the objectionable features which other forms have; that is, it is not unpleasant to handle, and produces no caustic or burning effect; in fact, there can hardly be any danger of applying too much. It does not, however, have the same neutralizing value as quicklime, 100 pounds being required where 56 pounds of quicklime would suffice. At present, ground limestone would probably not be found upon the market, but when it is demanded there is little doubt that some one would be ready to supply the want. There are a number of places throughout the State where limestone may be procured, and the work of the State Geological Survey will unquestionally locate other deposits. Mills, such as are used for grinding phosphate rock, could be installed at one or more of these places according to the demand.

Marl and ground shells would also be effective materials for covering soil acidity, the effectiveness depending upon their quality and firmness. A marl containing half as much calcium carbonate as a good quality of limestone, would be just half as effective as the limestone; that is, it would be necessary to apply just twice as much marl as limestone to get the same result.

Ashes and Slag.

Hardwood ashes will neutralize soil acids, and if unleached, will furnish some potash; so that it is a good policy to save all that may be produced on the farm. If hardwood ashes must be bought, however, they would prove an expensive material for this purpose. Limestone would be much cheaper. The lime in a ton of good hardwood ashes would have about the same neutralizing effect as half a ton of finely ground limestone; and a ton of such ashes would probably cost $15 to $17. The value of the potash and phosphoric acid in this ton would not exceed $5 to $7, making the cost of the lime—which as stated above would be equivalent to half a ton of finely ground limestone—$8 to $12. In Illinois the price of ground limestone in carload lots, on board the cars, varies from 50c to $1 per ton, according to the fineness. Certainly it should not cost more than double that amount in Florida.

Basic slag, or Thomas slag, is a by-product in the manufacture of steel from pigiron containing phosphorus. It contains from 15 to 20 per cent. of phosphoric acid and a large quantity of free lime, as well as some iron, magnesia, etc. If it is desired to supply the soil with phosphoric acid, in addition to correcting the acidity, this material would be well adapted for the purpose, if it can be had at a reasonable price; but if correcting acidity is the only object in view, basic slag would be too expensive.

Amounts to Use.

In most cases where a corrective for "sour" soils is needed, it will be safe to use from one-half to two tons of air-slacked lime, or from two to six tons of finely ground limestone, per acre. If limestone is used it may be applied at any time, but if it can be worked into the soil some months before the crop is planted, so much the better. It will then have more time to attack the acids.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF E. W. IRVINE

Candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

To the Democratic Electors of Florida: After due consideration of the many solicitations of my friends and acquaintances throughout the State to become a candidate, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Railroad Commissioner, to succeed Capt. John L. Morgan. In aspiring to said office I fully believe I can discharge duties thereof with credit to myself and benefit to my people.

I shall stand for the following principles and measures:

1st. The just and rigid enforcement of the laws and rules of the commission, holding the railroads and all corporations amenable to the same as individuals—recognizing at all times the right and necessity of corporations to exist for the upbuilding of our State and country, and the conveniences and accommodation of our people.

2nd. I shall oppose the taxing of ourselves by granting of rates, both of traffic and passenger fares, to earn dividends on watered stock, purporting to be money invested in the construction of said railroads.

3rd. I shall endeavor with all the power within me, to secure to the poor man that has the ability to ride only one dollar's worth, the same just and equitable rate as the man that rides a hundred dollars' worth or more.

4th. I shall oppose, to the utmost, the cutting and slashing of rates, both passenger and traffic, thereby crippling the efficiency of the service of the railroads to the people, resulting in damage to both the people and railroads—causing them thereby to employ cheaper and incompetent men, which means disaster to all and danger to both life and property.

5th. I shall advocate, encourage and demand, at all times, efficient, prompt and just service—void of discrimination against persons or places; prompt adjustment and payment of claims and damages.

6th. I recognize that charters and franchises granted by the State to said corporations are creations of the State, and the State's right to control and govern their dealings with its citizens. And if I should find, after thorough investigation, that the powers already delegated to the commission are inadequate to meet our necessities, I shall appeal to the Legislature for the power, from time to time, as the occasion and circumstances may demand.

7th. I shall not seek this office at the expense of the personal character and reputation of my opponents, and would not accept the office at the cost of traducing the good name of either of my opponents, or the debauching of any voter, directly or indirectly, with money or otherwise.

If the above principles meet your approbation, and you feel warranted in giving me your support, I will appreciate it as confidence reposed and an honor conferred, and promise you in return that you shall never have cause to regret it.

Very respectfully,

E. W. IRVINE.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Sanitary Precautions Taken.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 24—In order to prevent the spread of scarlet fever, the board of education at a special meeting Wednesday decided to burn at least 750 text books in use in the Kenwood and Douglass schools. Though there are only thirty-six cases of scarlet fever in the city, according to Dr. P. M. Hill, of the health department, the appearance of the disease among school children has alarmed parents.

HOG TOWN CREEK BRIDGE.

Bridge Over Newberry Road Ford Was Completed Friday.

Supervisor J. R. Emerson of the county roads has just completed a bridge over Hog Town creek on the Newberry road, which will be appreciated by those who have occasion to travel this thoroughfare, as this ford has been very inconvenient in extremely wet weather, in many instances being impassable.

This bridge is thirty-six feet long on the span, and stands at an elevation of four feet, seven inches above low water. It is supported by concrete piers, and altogether is a most substantial structure.

The county is under obligations to Mr. Bock, the lumber manufacturer who owns and operates a sawmill a short distance west of the creek, for the lumber in this bridge, which was furnished absolutely free to the county.

The first to try the bridge was "Old Roan," a mule which has been in the service of the county on road work for eighteen years, and which, Mr. Emerson declared, is "afraid of nothing." The bridge worked admirably under her weight, and Mr. Emerson is well pleased with his job, and believes the bridge will prove of lasting and great advantage.

Mr. Bock was the first who had the privilege of crossing the bridge in a team, and expressed himself as being well pleased.

Supervisor Emerson is making good progress on the road to Newberry, which is being constructed of clay, and which is destined to prove of great benefit. Nearly nine miles of right-of-way have been opened, and work on the roadbed is progressing nicely.

MURDER AT NEWBERRY.

Jim Hill Assaulted Jim Smith With Piece of Iron, Causing Death.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Livingston of Newberry arrived in the city Saturday with Jim Hill, a negro who was arraigned in Justice E. T. Henderson's court upon a charge of murder, and committed to jail in default of $1,000 bond.

On January 22, it is alleged that Hill assaulted one Jim Smith with a piece of flat iron, striking him a severe blow on the head, from which he subsequently died.

A Pleasant Party.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

Complimentary to those who so kindly and willingly assisted her in making the musicale of Friday night, the 18th, such a success, Mrs. J. B. Cutler tendered a private car party and a trip down the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad Thursday.

The Tuscawilla, the private car of Superintendent Cutler, was used for the occasion, and an elegant luncheon was served aboard the car. The party spent the day delightfully, returning to this city about 5:30 in the afternoon.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Cutler upon this occasion were Mesdames Dunham, Prindle and J. F. McKinstry, Jr., Misses Burkhim, Fennell, Loyie Goode, Zeigler, Alice Thomas, Pound, Eddy and Bowers, and Mr. J. A. Goodwin.

Our friends said we were ruined when the freeze killed our groves, but Floridians just laughed. We haven't half the population to care for all our resources of wealth, but when one is subtracted from the list for a time or a locality we look around and add two more in its place.—Times-Union.

FIRE AT HIGH SPRINGS.

House Occupied by Mrs. J. C. Barrs Was Burned to the Ground.

Information has reached this city to the effect that the house occupied by Mrs. J. C. Barrs at High Springs was burned to the ground a day or two ago.

The flames were not discovered until they had gained considerable headway, and when it was too late to extinguish them. All the household effects of the occupants, however, were saved.
